Day-wise Itinerary

Day 1

Day 1: Arrival in Rome. Upon arrival in Rome, check into your hotel. In the afternoon, explore the Colosseum and Roman Forum to immerse yourself in ancient Roman history. Later, visit the Trevi Fountain to toss a coin and make a wish, then enjoy dinner at a local trattoria.

Day 2

Day 2: Rome. Start your day by exploring Vatican City, including St. Peter's Basilica and the Vatican Museums where you can marvel at the Sistine Chapel. Afterward, visit the Pantheon to admire its impressive dome and explore the lively atmosphere of Piazza Navona. In the evening, take a leisurely stroll through Rome's historic center.

Day 3

Day 3: Florence. Travel to Florence in the morning (approximately 1.5-2 hours by train). Upon arrival, visit the Uffizi Gallery to see Renaissance masterpieces by Botticelli, Michelangelo, and Leonardo da Vinci. Spend your evening walking across the iconic Ponte Vecchio, known for its jewelry shops and stunning views.

Day 4

Day 4: Florence. Begin your day by climbing to the top of the Florence Cathedral's Duomo for breathtaking views of the city. In the afternoon, explore the Accademia Gallery to see Michelangelo's David and other significant artworks. Finish your day at the historic Piazza della Signoria, home to impressive sculptures and the Palazzo Vecchio.

Day 5

Day 5: Venice. Take a morning train to Venice (approximately 2 hours by train). Upon arrival, explore St. Mark's Basilica and Square, then enjoy a scenic vaporetto ride along the Grand Canal. In the afternoon, visit the Doge's Palace and cross the iconic Bridge of Sighs. In the evening, enjoy a delightful dinner overlooking the Venetian canals.

Day 6

Day 6: Venice. Start your day by visiting the Rialto Bridge and exploring its bustling surroundings. Then, take a boat trip to Murano for glassblowing demonstrations and visit Burano to admire its colorful houses. Return to Venice in the evening for a final dinner with views of the Grand Canal.

Day 7

Day 7: Departure. Depending on your departure time, spend your last morning in Venice exploring more of its charming streets or indulging in some last-minute shopping. Depart Venice, taking with you unforgettable memories of Italy's rich cultural heritage and stunning landscapes.
